Background – (This will aid in our understanding of how the writer might have meant it and the people it was written to understood it in their culture.)

*What is the context and the story line of the prayer?

*Who is speaking? For what did they ask? *What was their posture (both physical and spiritual) before God?

Meaning – (Describe the type of prayer.

Is it a prayer of praise, confession, petition/intercession, thanksgiving, a prayer in which a vow was made?)

.What does it teach me about God—His kingdom, His character and how He works in hearts and lives?

.When or why we are told to pray? How is this prayer an example for us? Any instruction for us on how to pray?

.What impacts you about this prayer?

.Is there a promise of God in the prayer (any indication of what we may achieve)?

Application of the prayer into our life

*What have I learned that I can use as a model for praying for God's kingdom, myself and others?

*Why/ When might this prayer be needed in your life?

*What are other Bible verses or truths that can be included in your prayer?

*Write out your prayer to God.

Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.

Jeremiah 33:3 NKJV
